

Volume 29 Issue 10: August 2005

2001 ELYSE WINERY

Cabernet Sauvignon Morisoli Vineyard Napa Valley

92 **

Decidedly Cabernet in focus with its curranty fruit made all the more interesting by the loamy, dusty richness of the Rutherford Bench soils, this superb bottling is still a baby when it comes to its potential. There is fruit depth galore here and a fairly full and supple entry impression that is immediately buttressed by solid, never coarse tannins that provide grip without grit. We love its polished feel and its finely constructed flavors and think that it will age well for a decade or more.