90 Elyse 2003 California Nero Misto

A strange, exotic jam, somewhere between red currant and white lilies, this blend of petite sirah with zinfandel, sangiovese and carignan has a flavor all its own. It's a vibrant red taste, with as much red earth and flowers as red and blue fruit. There's a slight edge of prune for contrast, the only taste in the mix that's actually black. A sunny blend to serve with boar or venison.
