

Wine & Spirits

June 2005 issue

93 Elyse 2003 Rutherford Petite Sirah

Turn right at the Rutherford Grill off Highway 29, and you'll find La Luna Taqueria inside a small market. The carnitas there are the best thing you could eat with this Rutherford red, a petite sirah in which the savor of the place is more dominant than the varietal character. It's luscious and peppery, with black raspberry and tart plum flavors along with a dusty, dark-toned earthiness that lasts. Age it, or give it plenty of air before ordering the carnitas.