TASTING NOTES:

C'est Si Bon (It's so good!), is made from grapes indigenous to the Rhone Valley in Southern France, yet very well suited to the terroir of the Sierra Foothills.

This wine has intriguing aromas of black raspberries, orange blossom, cassis and nutmeg with a subtle earthy character and hints of herbes de Provence. On the palate, flavors of black cherries, ripe raspberries and blackberries and a hint of chocolate lead to a creamy, sensuous mouthfeel and genuinely long finish. The 2010 C'est Si Bon is medium bodied and amazingly well balanced with vibrant fruit, soft tannins and good acidity. It has great depth, balance, and finesse – and is way too easy to drink.

This wine works amazingly well with all sorts of cuisine so use your imagination and enjoy. It really is so good!

ABOUT ELYSE WINERY:

Winemaking is cooking without a flame. Our winemaking philosophy at Elyse in Napa Valley is similar to the approach of a great chef who carefully prepares artisan grown ingredients to bring each layer of flavor to the table. Long term alliances with our growers form the cornerstone to our portfolio of vineyard driven wines that possess an unfaltering affinity for pairing with food.

“A meal with wine is dining – it's a conversation, an event. It's what wine is all about.”

– Ray Coursen, Winemaker & Owner
