TASTING NOTES:

C'est Si Bon (It's so good!), is made from grapes indigenous to the Rhone Valley in Southern France, yet very well suited to the terroir of the Sierra Foothills. This wine has delightful and intriguing aromas of dried raspberries, crushed herbs and allspice with suggestions of blueberries, white pepper and earth. On the palate, dynamic fruit flavors of plums, wild cherries and strawberries with hints of cocoa and mint lead to a sumptuous mouthfeel revealing depth, balance and finesse.

The 2008 C'est Si Bon is medium-bodied and amazingly well balanced with soft tannins, vibrant fruit and bright acidity. So enjoyable, this is a wine where one glass is just not enough.

This wine works amazingly well with all sorts of cuisine so use your imagination and enjoy. It really is so good!

ABOUT ELYSE WINERY:

Winemaking is cooking without a flame. Our winemaking philosophy at Elyse in Napa Valley is similar to the approach of a great chef who carefully prepares artisan grown ingredients to bring each layer of flavor to the table. Long term alliances with our growers form the cornerstone to our portfolio of vineyard driven wines that possess an unfaltering affinity for pairing with food.

“A meal with wine is dining – it's a conversation, an event. It's what wine is all about.”

– Ray Coursen, Winemaker & Owner
